Institution Distinctiveness 2023-24

As we navigate the complexities of the 21st century, world is becoming more and more violent, facing communal divide. Mahatma Gandhi's principles of non-violence, truthfulness, simplicity, self-reliance, and compassion remain not only relevant but also essential. As a teaching community, it is our duty to inculcate these values in among our students. As an initiative towards building a peaceful, non-violent society ,the Institution celebrates Gandhi Mahahotsav every year
